

TALK IT OVER

Talking through the message during the week can really help clarify the things that God is teaching you and let others learn from your experiences. Get with someone this week and talk about your answers to the following questions:

God breaks through in _____

What thought from the message was most helpful to you?

God breaks through in _____

What thought from the message was most challenging to you?

God breaks through in _____

Using these four areas of breakthrough, how would you describe God?

God breaks through in _____

Why is it helpful to be familiar with the trajectory of the Old Testament as a whole?

What changes if we move the title "Word of God" from Scripture and place it onto Jesus? What stays the same?

TALK IT OVER

Talking through the message during the week can really help clarify the things that God is teaching you and let others learn from your experiences. Get with someone this week and talk about your answers to the following questions:

God breaks through in CREATION

What thought from the message was most helpful to you?

God breaks through in WRITTEN WORD

What thought from the message was most challenging to you?

God breaks through in SPOKEN WORD

Using these four areas of breakthrough, how would you describe God?

God breaks through in BEING

Why is it helpful to be familiar with the trajectory of the Old Testament as a whole?

What changes if we move the title "Word of God" from Scripture and place it onto Jesus? What stays the same?