I AM THE GOOD SHEPHERD

John 10:11 I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep. 12 The hired hand is not the shepherd who owns the sheep. So, when he sees the wolf coming, he abandons the sheep and runs away. Then the wolf attacks the flock and scatters it. 13 The man runs away because he is a hired hand and cares nothing for the sheep. 14 "I am the good shepherd; I know my sheep and my sheep know me-- 15 just as the Father knows me and I know the Father--and I lay down my life for the sheep. 16 I have other sheep that are not of this sheep pen. I must bring them also. They too will listen to my voice, and there shall be one flock and one shepherd.

Sheep:

TALK IT OVER

Talking through the message during the week can really help clarify the things that God is teaching you and let others learn from your experiences. Get with someone this week and talk about your answers to the following questions.

What one idea from the message stands out most to you?

In what ways do you tend to be "like a sheep?"

Read Ps 23 & John 10:1-18 and allow God to speak to you. What are some things you are learning yourself and God from these passages?

Which of the things that the Good Shepherd does for his sheep is most relevant to you right now? What is God teaching you about that?

What is one step you could take to allow Jesus to shepherd you more?

What questions remain for you about Jesus' guidance?
