TALK IT OVER

Talking through the message during the week can really help clarify the things that God is teaching you and let others learn from your experiences. Get with someone this week and talk about your answers to the following questions.

How is the myth of "superwoman" being propagated today?

What lies are you struggling to "disbelieve" today? How can you gain a more biblical worldview on those matters?

What is a lie that you believed in the past but have since discovered the truth about? What made you think differently today about it?

What lies are you concerned your kids are believing? How can you help them to discern the truth?

What do you think makes us susceptible to lies about us, others and God?

What does it mean to follow Jesus? How will doing so help you think differently?
