

Mother's Day Service 2016 (Page 1)

Our special Mother's Day service, a conversation with moms focused primarily on the challenges of motherhood, but the topics definitely apply to all parents. Use the questions below to discuss parenting in general in your home group.

What was the biggest thing you learned from the panel on Sunday?

In what ways do you struggle with comparison with other parents? How do you deal with those unhealthy comparisons?

In what ways could you benefit from being around other parents that would not create unhealthy comparisons?

Who do you look to for advice in parenting? How have you been a mentor to other parents in the past?

How has your faith helped you through your experiences as a parent?

What are some of the biggest challenges you're facing in the current parenting season you are in? What verses do you turn to for wisdom?

What unanswered questions do you have about parenting?

What are some of the unique challenges you feel you face as a parent?

Mother's Day Service 2016 (Page 2)

In what ways can you identify with the mom who felt her children's successes and/or failures were all on her?

What are some of the benefits of being part of a community of faith while carrying the load of parent?

How can the church be more helpful to single parents?

What are some of the unique challenges to being a grandparent?