

Then Joshua said to the Israelites, "In the future, your children will ask, 'What do these stones mean?' Then you can tell them, 'This is where the Israelites crossed the Jordan on dry ground.' For the LORD your God dried up the river right before your eyes, and he kept it dry until you were all across, just as he did at the Red Sea when he dried it up until we had all crossed over. He did this so that all the nations of the earth might know the power of the LORD, and that you might fear the LORD your God forever." (Joshua 4:21-24, NLT)

As you come to him, the living Stone--rejected by men but chosen by God and precious to him-- you also, like living stones, are being built into a spiritual house to be a holy priesthood, offering spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. (1Peter 2:4-5, NIV)

TALK IT OVER

Talking through the message during the week can really help clarify the things that God is teaching you and let others learn from your experiences.

What thought stood out most to you in the message?

In what kind of situation are you most likely to "forget" the Lord? Hard times? Extra-good times? Ordinary times? Why do you think that happens?

Do you have any particular way(s) of remembering significant events when God showed up for you or your family? How have they helped you?

Read 1Peter 2:4-5. In what ways are you being like a "living stone?" What part of your life do non-Christians most often ask about and how do you answer them?

What purpose do you think building a second memorial in the Jordan served? Joshua also built another memorial of twelve stones in the middle of the Jordan, at the place where the priests who carried the Ark of the Covenant were standing. (Joshua 4:9, NLT)

What questions do you have about the land promised to the Israelites?

He did this so that all the nations of the earth might know the power of the LORD, and that you might fear the LORD your God forever." (Joshua 4:21-24, NLT)
