Talking through the message during the week can really help clarify the things that God is teaching you and let others learn from your experiences. Get with someone this week and talk about your answers to the following questions:

What is God teaching you from reading Psalms?

What are you learning about yourself from Psalms?

Are there things in your life that you are lamenting?

When you look back on your life, in what ways have you seen God draw you in to “hallelujahs?”

The psalms use language that is vulnerable and honest. Do you use similar language in your prayers? What makes this easy or difficult for you?

If you're looking for a way to synchronize our Sunday teachings with your daily Bible reading, then try one of the following resources that we've utilized.

- YouVersion. A free smart-phone application with numerous Psalms reading plans.
- The Songs of Jesus. Timothy & Kathy Keller. A year of daily devotions in the Psalms that is super practical and syncs themes from Psalms with the Gospel.
- The Essential Bible Companion To The Psalms. Brian Webster & David Beach. An intermediate commentary on Psalms, providing a substantial introduction and overview of Psalms along with brief commentary on each Psalm.
- The NIV Application Commentary/Psalms Volume 1. Gerald Wilson. A more hefty and technical commentary covering each Psalm. Multiple volumes.
- The Case For The Psalms. N.T. Wright. A shorter volume that provides a thematic perspective of the Psalms rather than a treatment of each individual Psalm.

*All books are also available in digital as well.
